DR. C. W. BENSON'S CELERY AND CHAMOMILE PILLS are prepared expressly to cure Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis, Sleeplessness and Indigestion or Dyspepsia, and will cure any case, no matter how obstinate, if properly used. They are not a cure-all, but only for those special diseases. They contain no opium, morphine or quinine, and are not a purgative, but regulate the bowels and cures constipation by curing or removing the causes of it. They have a charming effect upon the skin, and a lovely, quieting effect upon the nervous system, simply by feeding its ten thousand hungry, yes, in some cases starving absorbants. They make or create nerve matter and give power, force and buoyancy to the nerves, and in that way increase mental force, endurance and brilliancy of mind. Nobody that has a nervous system should neglect to take them two or three months in each year, simply as a nerve food, if for no other purpose. Price 50 cts. a box, or six boxes for $2.50, sent postage free. Sold by all druggists, and by

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

Lots of camp-meetings just now.

Arkansas is going in for more repudiation. This time only $12 000,000.

The sales of cattle this year in Texas, it is estimated, will reach 7,000,000 head.

The average of wheat in the United States, aggregates 30,000,000.

The negro exodus from the South has recommenced.

The prospect of large crops throughout the State of Maine is good and the farmers rejoice.

Minnesota has 2,963,325 acres in wheat this year, and expects to increase last year's yield of 21,218,634 bushels to over 44,000,000 bushels.

It is a fact which is not generally realized that America widens at the north until it juts out into the ocean so as to be within thirty-six miles of Asia. In severe seasons Behring's Straits are frozen over, and animals have passed on the ice from one continent to the other.

They must be hard put to it for amusement at Newport, R. I., for seventy-five horsemen and a pack of hounds to chase a poor half tame fox until they frighten him to death. We regret that this cruel and cowardly amusement has been introduced into this country.

An exchange says it ought to be more generally known that wheat flour is probably the best article to throw over a fire caused by the spilling and igniting of kerosene. It ought to be known, because flour is always within convenient reach, and often valuable articles of clothing, blankets, etc., are destroyed in extinguishing such fires. Ashes and sand are equally as good.

If, during the ten years to come, the tide of emigration from Canada to the United States sets in as strongly as it has during the past eight months, there will not be a great many people left in Canada to oppose annexation. It is stated that since Oct. 1 of last year 57,000 Canadians have left Ontario alone, and that of these more than nine-tenths have settled in the States. A very large number have left the province of Quebec, also, with the view of becoming permanent residents of the United States.

The measurement of the satellites of Mars made at the Harvard College Observatory indicate that the inner moon has a diameter of six and a half miles, and the outer moon a diameter of five miles and nine-tenths. Another measurement of the latter gives a diameter of five-tenths of a miles less. In his report for 1877, Prof. Pickering says the darker color of the outer satellite somewhat diminishes its light, so that it is probably safe to regard it as about six miles in diameter, and the inner satellite as seven miles.

SKILLFUL SURGERY!

Removal of Urinary Calculæ by the Knife.

A LUCKY MAN.

Mr. Simeon Tietsell, of Saugerties, N. Y., had been treated for seven years by various physicians for what they called Stricture of the Urethra, without benefit. He finally consulted Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who found his trouble to be Urinary Calculi, or Stones in the Bladder. The Doctor at once removed the foreign bodies with the knife and then gave his great Blood Specific, "Favorite Remedy" to prevent their reformation. The entire treatment was eminently successful, and Mr. Tietsell's recovery was rapid and perfect.

While "Favorite Remedy" is a specific in all Kidney and Bladder diseases it is equally valuable in cases of Bilious Disorders, Constipation of the Bowels, and all the class of ills apparently inseparable from the constitutions of woman. Try it. Your druggist has it, and its cost is only one dollar a bottle. The lucky man is he who puts this advice in practice. Don't forget the name and address, Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, New York. d&wlm aug6

SURE DEATH

—TO— Insects of all Kinds,

is the result of the use of

which is SAFE to use and HARMLESS to human life. A few puffs of the dust blown into the air of a room with the doors closed, directed towards those parts where flies are congregated, will stupify and kill them in a very short time. Our constantly increasing sales convinces us that a single trial according to directions will establish the fact.

SPLENDID MEETING IN MAPLETON.

BANNER MEETING OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Fusion Majority to be Wiped Out.

[Special Despatch to Whig & Courier.]

CARIBOU, Aug. 21. Hon. Geo. Cutler and E. D. Wiggin, Esq., addressed between four and five hundred people at Mills Mills, Mapleton, last night; and for genuine enthusiasm it is the banner meeting of the campaign. It partook so largely of the spirit of Republican meetings in the campaign of sixty-four that it was the subject of general remark. This place gave a fusion majority of twenty-seven last year. Our folks say they can easily wipe this out in September.

Cheers for Blaine in a Democratic Meeting.

AUGUSTA, Aug. 22. The Democrats held a rally at Granite Hall last evening. The meeting was addressed by Loring Farr of this city and Col. Fellows. The hall was well filled and the Democrats enthusiastic. An incidental mention of the name of Mr. Blaine by Fellows in his remarks drew forth a good cheer from the crowd. The speaker confined himself to Democratic issues, having nothing to say bearing upon Greenbackism.

Franklin County Fusionists.

FARMINGTON, Aug. 21. The Democratic county convention met here to-day and fully endorsed the Greenback nominations. The attendance was about seventy-five.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Yellow Fever in Boston Harbor.

BOSTON, Aug. 21. Barque Janet Ferguson, from Iloilo, Phillipine Islands, with sugar for Boston, arrived Friday morning, and was detained at quarantine, Capt. John Parrott being down with yellow fever. The vessel was fumigated and the captain transferred to the hospital. The ship had been out one hundred and fifty days, which is forty days over time, having encountered head winds nearly the entire voyage. The crew suffered severe privations during the latter part of the voyage, being entirely out of provisions upward of fifteen days. They were very much exhausted, and one will probably die.

Destruction of a Large Paper Mill.

BOSTON, Aug. 22. The large paper mill of F. W. Bird, Hollingworth & Co., at East Walpole, Mass., was destroyed by fire early this morning. Valuable machinery was destroyed, including one engine, one four-cylinder double press, valued at $10,000; a polishing machine, boilers, etc. A vat containing six thousand dollars worth of pulp was also destroyed. Loss on building, machinery, stock, etc., is estimated at about $75,000, which were insured for about two-thirds of their value.

FIRE IN CHARLESTOWN NAVY YARD.

Total Loss Nearly $70,000.

BOSTON, Aug. 21. A fire of considerable magnitude broke out in the hackling or preparatory room of the rope-walk in Charlestown Navy Yard. When discovered, owing to the inflammable nature of the loose material in the building, it had already gained great headway, and the Navy Yard fire engines, though promptly at work, made but little impression on the blaze. The city fire department soon arrived, however, and with the efficient aid of the Navy Yard fire brigade succeeded in an hour in subduing the flames. The fire started in the second story, which contains the rope-making machinery. All these machines were destroyed or rendered useless by the caving in on them of the heavy roof, which fell half an hour after the fire started. The lower floor contains a horizontal engine, which was badly damaged, and 250 tons of new cordage, which will have to be sold at auction. The adjoining preparatory house is of stone, occupied on the second floor as oil rooms and offices; and on the 3d floor blacksmith, repair and carpenter shops and tool rooms. The shops are all burned out, while the contents of the offices are badly damaged by water. One hundred and fifty feet of rope walk proper is so badly damaged as to necessitate its demolition and rebuilding. Loss on machinery, stock, tools, &c., will reach $50,000, while the damage to buildings will bring the total to $70,000.

NEW YORK CITY.

Examination of an Insurance Broker.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21. Elijah Alliger, the insurance broker, accused of negotiating 1000 stolen Hannibal & St. Joseph R. R. bonds, was examined this morning. Quite a sensation was caused by Police Inspector Byrnes preferring another charge against the accused. In February last the First National Bank of Westport, Conn., was robbed of a large amount of securities belonging to Francis Eberwood. The latter were traced to the Third National Bank of this city where Byrnes alleged they were hypothecated by Alliger.

A Kidnapper.

James Campbell, who disappeared lately with three of his children, was found yesterday in 15th street park. When asked to go home Campbell was afraid to face his neighbors and in the confusion escaped, leaving his children with their mother. The little girl said their father had taken them to Canada. He has not again been discovered.

The Illness of Thurlow Weed.

Thurlow Weed has been forbidden by his physicians to receive visitors. He suffers from extreme exhaustion, due to labor and the hot weather. His condition is not dangerous.

The War on Cats.

A Boston lady has sent Mayor Cooper a letter in relation to the cat ordinance now before him. She says that if the ordinance should become a law, and a war is inaugurated against the felines, people should destroy kittens as soon as born. This would result in the gradual extermination of cats.

A Democratic Call.

A call has been issued by the Executive Committee of the Faulkner Democratic State Committee for a meeting of the State Committee Friday, Aug. 27th, at St. James Hotel, at which meeting the chief question to be considered will be whether a State Convention will be called or not.

Meeting of Garfield Clubs.

A call for a convention of Garfield and Arthur clubs at Indianapolis was issued by the Republican Central Campaign Club in this city.

Personal.

Among the arrivals from Europe to-day were Hon. J. A. Kasson, Minister to Vienna, Rev. Phillips Brooks and Thomas Hughes.

Prize Fighting Stopped.

Thomas Holmes and Patrick Dinan, pugilists, of South Brooklyn, were arrested this morning while engaged in a prize fight at Woodside, L. I. Twenty-eight rounds had been fought in one hour, and both men were terribly punished. Their eyes were nearly closed and their faces swollen almost out of shape.

More Victims of the May's Landing Disaster.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21. Wm. F. Gallagher, one of the injured at May's Landing, died in Pennsylvania Hospital this morning, and Patrick McCann, another victim, died at the same place to-night. Of those remaining at the hospital, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. Carr and James McBride, are now in a critical condition. Thus far there have been twenty-three deaths by the accident.

Garrett Cotter, of Worcester, Mass., contractor, was killed at Southbridge, Saturday morning, by the caving in of a bank of earth.

OHIO.

Horrible Affair.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 22. A special from Marietta, O., says that the people of the town of Lowell, ten miles distant on the Muskingum River, were horrified to find that the twin children of John Farley had been drowned in a tub of water during the night. The father and mother were arrested. The children were only a month old. The parents are very poor. Farley is given to drink. They both deny the crime, but Farley says he believes his wife drowned them. They have three other children.

TENNESSEE.

Conflict between Officers and Roughs.

MORRISTOWN, Aug. 21. A general disturbance took place last evening between some drunken roughs and the officers of the law. The town marshal, James T. Morris, and Benj. F. Richardson were killed and the sheriff dangerously wounded. There is great excitement.

Fatal Affray at a Circus.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 21. Previous to the performance at Robinson's circus at Morristown, last night, the Sheriff of Hamblen county was shot and officer Morris was killed by Ben Richardson while attempting to arrest the latter. Another officer was killed. Richardson and six others were wounded.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The Incendiary's Torch.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 22. A special from Edinburg, Pa., says: An incendiary torch was again applied to Edinburg this morning. The rear of Wheelock & Moore's livery stable was saturated with kerosene and set on fire. In two hours sixteen business houses were destroyed, among them six newly erected.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

BASE ball: Chicago—Chicagos 11, Bostons 2; Buffalo—Worcesters 8, Buffalos 0.

Isaac W. Brown, the well-known sexton of Grace church, New York, died last night.

A man giving the name of Wilson visited Fitchburg, Mass., Thursday, and stole two suits of clothes on Friday from a fellow lodger, and then hired a team at David E. William's stable to go to Leominster. He stole the team also, and officers are looking for him.

A recent storm at Corpus Christie destroyed three hundred houses. The entire loss in the place was one million dollars. Many vessels were sunk at the wharves.

There was an earthquake at Havana on Friday.

On Saturday, Fearn defeated Boynton in the swimming match at Atlantic City by six and one-half miles.

The satinet mill of B. F. Leonard, at Auburn, Mass., was destroyed by fire Saturday. Loss $60,000; insured for $40,000.

There is a young unmarried lady at Poland Springs House who has just been presented by her father with a $100,000 brown stone mansion located in New York city.

George S. Hill, Esq., presided at the immense mass meeting at Exeter, and the distinguished speakers were guests at his house. The refreshments provided by the ladies for visitors on the occasion were abundant and palatable.

The Crusade excursion will not stop at Northport as previously advertised in the special notice column. As this is the first excursion of this organization they hope to see all their friends and welcome them cordially to a pleasant sail to one of the finest places on the coast of Maine.

P. F. R. Clark, Esq., of Washington, D. C., formerly of Bangor, will have charge of the Northport Grounds as Chief of Police, with some dozen or more aids, as may be required.

A horse owned by Mr. Geo. I. Wescott run away near the ferry yesterday afternoon. Mr. Wescott's son who had the team at the time was thrown out, but escaped serious injury.

The funeral of the late Samuel Jewett, Esq., occurred yesterday afternoon and was attended by many of our prominent citizens. Mr. Jewett was superintendent of the City Farm for many years.

Friday night the old schooner Jacob and William dragged her anchor and went on the rocks just below the Maine Central wharf. She filled with water and was considerably damaged and was towed down to the flats at High Head, Saturday.

ODD FELLOWS. Good Cheer Lodge No. 37 I. O. O. F., of Guilford, are going to dedicate their new hall Monday, Aug. 31st. The officers of the Grand Lodge of Maine, seven Lodges of Odd Fellows, and four bands of music are to be present and take part in the exercises. A grand street parade will take place at eleven o'clock. Oration at one o'clock by Rev. J. Marine.

The first annual fair of the State of Maine Live Stock Association, for the exhibition and sale of stock owned within the limits of the State, will be held on their grounds, located between Bath and Brunswick, on the line of the Maine Central Railroad, September 15th, 16th and 17th. Six hundred dollars are offered in Premiums.

Two weeks from Wednesday the hunting season opens, and the law is off ruffed grouse, (partridge) woodcock and ducks. Moose, deer and caribou are protected until October 15th. Grouse and woodcock hatched two weeks ahead of last season and should be in good condition September 1st. These birds are reported more plentiful than for a number of years past.

THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION. Yesterday Rev. Dr. Field preached a most timely and eloquent discourse on the present aspect of the temperance cause, in condemnation of the third party movement, and a masterly defence against the imputations that have been cast upon the fair name and fame of Bangor. We understand that, at the earnest request of many who heard it, Dr. Field will repeat the sermon at an early day.

BANGOR REFORM CLUB. An audience of rather more than four hundred people assembled at City Hall yesterday, upon the occasion of the regular Sunday afternoon meeting of the Bangor Reform Club. The meeting opened with reading the Scriptures by Mrs. Pickard, of the Crusade, followed with prayer by Dr. J. K. Lincoln, of the Club. Earnest opening remarks were made by President Montgomery and by Messrs. Campbell, Mason, Doughty, Chalmers, McFarland, Page, Randall, Sheedy, Clark, Kenney and Dr. Lincoln, all of the club. Mrs. Crossman, of the Crusade, also made remarks. The meeting was an interesting one and closed by the choir singing, "Touch not the wine."

FIRST MAINE CAVALRY. The citizens of Pittsfield are making extensive preparations for the reunion of the First Maine Cavalry, which takes place in that town on Wednesday next, and are arranging a bountiful banquet. A number of Maine veterans now residing in Massachusetts will come down to participate in the occasion. The new military company at Palmyra will also be present, it being their first appearance before the public. The members of Stephen Davis Post G. A. R., of Pittsfield, have volunteered to do escort duty. All the rooms at the Lancey House have been engaged, and some fifteen or twenty tents will be put up for the benefit of those who are unable to get other accommodations. Those going from this city will start Wednesday morning and return the next day.

LAKE MARANACOOK. Tuesday there will be an excursion from Portland to Lake Maranacook, on which occasion they will inaugurate an entertainment, similar in style to that so successfully given at Coney Island during the present season, known as a summer night festival. Arrangements have been completed to illuminate the grove by a system of reflecting lights, and festoons of Chinese lanterns, while from a raft moored in the centre of the lake a brilliant exhibition of fireworks will be given. Maranacook grove is the most charming spot that could have been selected for an exhibition of the kind, its natural advantages being far superior to those of Coney Island, while the smooth surface of the lake affords such a mirror for the reflection of the pyrotechnic display as would be impossible to obtain from the ocean. Chandler will furnish music for dancing.

ENTERTAINMENT TO-NIGHT AT FORT POINT. Beside the hop, Saturday evening, at Fort Point, which was largely attended and greatly enjoyed, there was a fine entertainment offered in the way of recitations or readings, by Miss Adelaide Detchon, a young and beautiful actress who has lately come into prominence. Among other selections Miss Detchon read Robert O' Lincoln; of her rendering of this novel poem an eminent critic has said, "We had to keep our eyes fastened on her petite form and beautiful face to feel sure that we did not hear the beautiful singer of the woods as he twittered and chirped the almost inimitable tones of bobolink himself, as he serenaded his mate." This evening the gifted lady will give a regular reading at the Fort Point House, and the entertainment cannot fail to be well worthy of attendance. Miss Detchon has an engagement to play at Wallack's theatre in leading parts during the coming season.

A NEW IDEA FOR STATE FAIR. There is going to be a big rush to Lewiston at the State Fair which is to open September 21st. The farmers are inaugurating a new movement—a camping-out season and picnic. Mr. Gilbert speaking of this plan says:—"For two or three years past the managers of the State Fair have proffered the privilege to Granges, and other parties, of camping on the Society's ground during the Fair without extra charge. The offer is again repeated, and farmers wishing for a short vacation at trifling cost, can take their families and join with their neighbors in camping out. Granges can introduce a bit of practical co-operation in furnishing camp equipage where their numbers can cook, eat, and sleep without restaurant or hotel charges, and find as much comfort as if 'down by the sea,' or 'back on the mountains.' Straw for bedding will be furnished by the Society, and ample room for camp fires for cooking and for making hot tea and coffee. Such food as they do not wish to bring from home can be provided on the grounds. Baggage marked 'State Fair Grounds' will be taken from the cars directly at the gates and thus save all cartage. The Turner Grange tried the experiment last year at Portland, and were so well pleased with their experience at that time, that they will attend in still larger numbers this year, and they hope to see camp fires of many other Granges kindled around them."

THE STATE HOUSE. In her letter to the Springfield Republican, Susie V. writes about the State House as follows: "The fine old State House stands on elevated ground, partially concealed by trees, yet it is conspicuous for many miles. In the rotunda, as at the Massachusetts capitol, we find many battle-torn and storm-worn flags—80, I think—borne by the Maine regiments in the rebellion, and it is recorded that not a flag was lost by the Maine troops during the war. Under the chandeliers in the centre is a pretty fountain, with basin stocked with trout. On the walls hang portraits of Gen. Knox, Gov. Pownal and Sir William Pepperell, which was copied by H. C. Pratt, from the original Smybert, an eminent Scotch artist, who flourished between 1725 and 1751. He painted many of the leading men of New England. We noted also a copy of the Stuart's "Washington," from Faneuil Hall; Lincoln painted by Simmons, and a fresh portrait of President Hayes. On one side is an excellent bust of Gov. Chamberlain by Jackson."

DISASTER AHEAD. Prof. Geo. L. Vose, of Bowdoin College, writes the following timely note of warning: There is every reason to believe that a frightful disaster is awaiting some of the numerous excursions which crowd the small boats in our rivers and along the coast, here in Maine, during the hot weather. I saw a small steamer, whose certificate allows it to carry 50 passengers, with 150 persons on its upper deck alone. I saw another, which is allowed by the inspector to carry 150 passengers, with over 400 on its upper deck alone, and I have seen this crowding, not once or twice, but a good many times during the season. Pretty soon some hundreds of women and children will be drowned on some of these crowded excursions, and the usual farce of an investigation will be played, with the usual result. Wouldn't it be as well to have these investigations first, and save the loss of life which is sure to come? What is the use of the government inspection card which is pasted up in the cabin of a steamer, and which says that the boat is allowed to carry 100 passengers, if the company knowingly disregards it, and allows 500 passengers to crowd upon its decks?

NORTHPORT ITEMS FROM THE SEA BREEZE. Two lamp posts for gasoline lights have been erected—one in front of the Grove House and one on Merithew Square. It is said there has been but one rainy Campmeeting week since it was located here a period of thirty years. We have had less fog this summer than for any previous season for years. Score one more for Northport. One of our cottagers displays her patriotism by flinging out a very nice silk flag bearing the names of Garfield and Arthur. There is a clatter and sound of the hammer, saw and foreplane all around us which makes lively music ten hours of the twenty-four. If as many cottages and buildings are erected annually for five years to come Northport will compare favorably with more pretentious resorts. Northport receives an annual cash income of about $1000 from the tax on cottages, lots, etc., on and connected with the grounds. And every year adds 10 per cent to the amount. Among the visitors to the "Bluff" recently was Gen. Logan who went by the invitation of Mr. Pierce the owner. He declared the view from Mt. Percival to be one of the most beautiful he had ever seen. Quite a fleet of yachts have been in the harbor during this week. Among them we noticed the Commodore of Bath, Mollie of Boston, Narragansett of Somerville, Restless of Brewer, Edith of Islesboro, Little Rogue of Belfast, and the Nettie.

FISHWAYS. The following extract from a letter from Everett Smith, Esq. commissioner of fisheries, will prove of interest to our readers: "On the Penobscot river some improvements at the Bangor fishway are just being completed. Owing to about ten feet rise and fall of the tide below the dam here, the fishway has been effective but a portion of each day. The improvements are designed to overcome this defect, and an important feature of the Augusta fishway has been added here. During the progress of this work at Bangor it has been necessary to shut the fishway each day, letting the water in every noon and night after suspension of work. On every such occasion the fishway was examined and the salmon found therein were restored to the river. During the first fourteen closings of the fishway no salmon were found. As the improvements progressed, however, salmon were daily observed, and the numbers found in the fishway at such closing gradually increased from two or three to seven, nine and twelve at last reports, at one time. Above Bangor, on the Penobscot river, there are improvements, partially carried out last year, to be made at Ayers' Falls. At the Great Works dam a new fishway has just been completed. This dam has heretofore been an impossible barrier to alewives, and passible to salmon only when the water in the river was high. Hereafter all fish in the river can pass the dam at any time. On the Mattawamkeag river there are three dams to be opened for the passage of fish. A new fishway is in construction at Sluegundy Falls. A passage will be made at Gordon's Falls, just below, as soon as this is completed, and I am now designing a fishway for the dam at Kingman."

OUTRAGEOUS CONDUCT OF THE DEMOCRATS.

A REPUBLICAN FLAG TORN DOWN.

Torches Stolen and Procession Interrupted.

Last Monday night the Republican flag at Blaine was cut down by a dastardly sneak and Greenbacker named Chandler. This deed has aroused so much indignation that Chandler considers the climate of Maine unhealthy, so unhealthy that he has gone across the lines. This act is on a par with that at Easton, the other night, when some contemptible scoundrel hoisted on the Republican flag-staff a regular black flag with its cross-bones and skull, and bearing the names of "Jack Mosby" and "General Keys." The thing who is supposed to have put it up resides in Easton, and certainly has not added anything to his not particularly savory reputation. He, too, is a Fusionist. Also last Wednesday night, at the same place, it being thought by certain Greenbackers—and it is claimed that their names are well known—that the Republican torch-light procession would pass over a certain bridge by the saw-mill, these "honest reformers" stripped the bridge of its covering and barricaded the road with logs and rubbish. As it happened, however, the procession did not pass that way, so the scoundrels had their labor for nothing; but the act shows the animus that actuated them. At Presque Isle last Saturday night, a large number of Republican torches were likewise destroyed. The Democratic party, or at least, some of its members are are certainly conducting this campaign upon "high toned" principles. When, however, the make-up of that party is considered nothing better can be expected.

Rousing Meeting at Etna

3000 People Present.

PERFECT ATTENTION AND THE GREATEST ENTHUSIASM.

Eloquent Speeches by Blaine, Woodford and Boutelle.

Etna took its share on Saturday of the great out-of-door mass meetings that have been held in old Penobscot the past week. The beautiful grove in which are held camp-meetings, finely adapted to the purpose, was assigned as the place of the meeting. Into this "first temple," early on Saturday afternoon gathered the people of the goodly town, with large delegations from Bangor, Newport, Carmel, Newburgh, Dixmont, Plymouth, Stetson, Palmyra, and Exeter. From the stand the seats extended up a gentle slope, so that each person in the audience could have a fair view of the speaker at the stand. These seats were all filled with ladies and gentlemen, and out into the grove among the trees and crowding on either side and in rear of the stand, were people anxious to see and to hear, either standing or reclining on some mossy hillock. Three thousand is a moderate estimate of the number present.

The Garfield and Davis Veteran Guards of Bangor, under command of Maj. W. Z. Clayton, turned out seventy-five strong, in their showy campaign uniforms, and made a fine display. This body is composed entirely of veteran soldiers who have seen actual service. They are marching under the same old banner which led them to victory in the war. The Guards were accompanied by a drum corps. They attracted a good deal of attention and their presence added very much to the interest of the occasion. On the arrival of the Guards at Etna they were met at the depot by the Newburgh Band, J. P. Ridley, leader; and the Newport Band, Dennis W. Sargent, leader. Both organizations furnished good marching music for the escort, and played several fine selections at the stand.

The meeting was called to order at two o'clock, by S. P. Dennett, Esq., who without any preliminary introduced to the audience Senator Blaine, who was received with prolonged applause, and hearty cheers, the people rising, swinging their hats, and cheering lustily. Mr. Blaine, spoke for an hour with great force and eloquence, dwelling chiefly upon the State steal, showing it up in all its glaring enormity. The speech was received with great enthusiasm. We have quite full notes of Mr. Blaine's speech, but desist from publishing it for the reason that Mr. Blaine will speak next Monday night in Bangor.

At the request of the chairman, Capt. Boutelle, in fitting and eloquent terms, introduced the next speaker, Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, the eloquent orator, the able statesman and the brave and patriotic soldier. Fairly elected Governor of New York, he had been defrauded of the position by the Tweedism of New York City. This finds its expression in the acts of Garcelon and his associates in Maine; and it seems fitting that at this time Gen. Woodford's eloquent voice should be heard here.

Gen. Woodford came forward amid cheers, and proceeded to address the great audience, gracefully referring to the compliment paid him by Capt. Boutelle. He said he was looking for the last time, during this campaign, into the faces of a Maine audience. He was not unmindful of the proud position of the Pine Tree State, but the Democratic party had written dishonor over its escutcheon. The Democratic party holds power alone by fraud and force. They claimed in their platform to support a full, free ballot and fair count. The General then proceeded to review their record on that point in the light of the murders and bulldozing in the South.

Two or three facts must be apparent. The South casts 138 ballots in the electoral colleges of the country—that the South is solid in the politics of this country. The Democrats base the election of Hancock on the vote of the solid South, with New York and Indiana—138 votes from the South, and 50 from the North. Should they get possession of the government it will be by the solid vote of the South, and the government will be wielded for the benefit of the South. That is a reasonable and fair statement. He had heard of the solid South before. It had torn down the Missouri compromise, plunged the country into war, fired every shot against the flag, ridged the country with graves. Judging from what it had done in the past he did not care again to intrust it with power. There are more manufacture, in Maine and New Hampshire than in all the South, with the bare exception of Maryland and Delaware. With the exception of Missouri, Delaware and Maryland, more money is invested in business in Maine and New Hampshire, than in the entire Southern States. Is it not fair that that portion of the country most largely interested in the business industries of the country should have something to say in the shaping of the government? He was sorry to hear the talk about the solid South. He had once seen that solid South clothed in grey and firing against the old flag. He arraigned the solid South as dangerous to the welfare of the Nation, because he believed that solidity is the product of force and fraud. The sum of the solid South has been added up by the shot-gun and the tissue ballot. It is dangerous in any free government when the right of suffrage is denied by physical coercion or when the result of the canvass is falsified by falsehood in the count. The solid South is more dangerous to itself than to the nation. The method by which they hold their States solid teaches the young men a dangerous political doctrine. It teaches them that law is not to be obeyed because it is law. Every young man who can read knows that the amendments to the Constitution give the negro the right to vote. The South ratified these amendments. When the young man sees these provisions of the Constitution violated and the black man driven from the polls, what will be the effect upon his conscience and judgment? The dreary farce through which they have just gone in Alabama is more terribly demoralizing to that State than even to the nation. We can correct it by the free, full fair vote of the North.

He knew that the sons of Maine would do their duty and buckle on the armor. His memory went back to the first hours of the war, when this Northern State voted one million dollars to the war, and pledged at once the raising of ten regiments. He had recently journeyed through this wonderful New England, had heard the spindles singing beside the waterfalls, the cheerful music of the hammer, and the voice of glad industry everywhere. We owe these blessings to our open bible, our open pulpits, free speech, a free press and free ballot. These lead to a strong, pure, free manhood. For these reasons, the triumph of the Republican party would be the best thing for the South itself.

Gen. Woodford spoke for about an hour in a fervid, impassioned manner, often moving his audience to tears, and swaying them by the irresistible power of his eloquence.

Capt. H. N. Fairbanks, of Bangor, called for three cheers for Gen. Woodford, who had, at the journeying of the Third Maine through New York to the seat of war, addressed them in a speech which has since been incorporated into the school books of the country as a specimen of impassioned eloquence. Three cheers were given with a will.

Loud calls were made for Capt. Charles A. Boutelle, and on his appearance he was received with cheers, being introduced as "the next member of Congress from this District." Capt. Boutelle said he had been reminded of the fact since the speech of Mr. Blaine, that the Fusionists at Exeter, yesterday, had made the statement that the alterations, substitutions and forgeries in the returns had been made since they came into the hands of the Republicans. It was indeed a silly and stupid charge, but it ought to be met. It would seem to be a curious proposition for the Republicans to count out thirty-seven of their own members, and count in thirty-seven Fusionists, and to absolutely steal away from themselves the State government. If you will take any of the returns you will find that the votes have been diverted from the Republicans and given to the Fusionists. Suppose the Republicans had changed these returns, making an H into an A, a C into a G, &c., what would it prove? Clearly this, that as the certificates to members of the legislature and other State officers were issued, on the basis of the alterations, the Governor and Council had certainly done wrong in not issuing them according to the returns as they were before they were changed. There was no escape from that position. Take the Somerville case as an illustration. As first tabulated, 72 votes were counted for Andrew R. G. Smith, the Republican candidate for Senator. That is his true name and the vote was correctly tabulated. But the tabulators had Bowler, the Town Clerk, make another return giving the votes to Andrew A. R. Smith. The 72 votes were erased from beneath the name of Andrew R. G. Smith in the tabulation, and placed beneath the name of Andrew A. R. Smith. If the Republicans made that change, why did not the Governor and Council count the 72 votes for Andrew R. G. Smith, as in the original tabulations, before the changes were made? To an intelligent audience like the one before him it was unnecessary to further show the absurdity of the charge that the Republicans had changed the returns since they came into their hands.

Capt. Boutelle then paid his respects to Mr. John B. Foster, in reply to Foster's Atkinson speech. He then reviewed the position of Mr. Ladd, as member of Congress from this District, showing that his claim to represent the Greenbackers was false, as he had acted with the Democrats from his first hour in Congress, and his every vote had been cast in the interest of the most intense Bourbonism. He closed with an eloquent review of the prosperity of the country, and that which awaited it in the future under the continued blessing and leading of Divine Providence.

Capt. Boutelle spoke for nearly two hours with great eloquence, earnestness and power, holding the large audience without a break to the close.

The meeting closed with rousing cheers for the speakers and candidates, and all returned to their homes feeling that a good day's work had been done, and a satisfactory advance made in the work of the campaign.

THE CAMPAIGN!

A Grand Rally at Calais.

CALAIS, Aug. 21.

Mr. Editor: We had still another grand Republican rally at St. Croix hall last evening, the audience filling it to its utmost capacity to listen to Hon. Wm. McKinley, whose good name and fame that has preceded him as a true exponent of Republican principles has not been overrated. He speaks in a strong, clear, distinct voice, no ranting, no sluring, but a plain, scholarly, statesmanlike view of the great issues now before this great American people. He does not believe that God in His wisdom has in store for this great American people of fifty millions of human beings, a doom so fearful as the supplanting of the great Republican party that has made this nation great and honored above any other nation on the habitable globe. It was a rousing Republican rally, and the Republicans are feeling jubilant over it.

Enthusiastic Rally at Sprague's Mills.

Last Wednesday evening the Republicans of Easton had a grand rally at Sprague's Mills. About six o'clock large crowds began to assemble from Presque Isle, Fort Fairfield and other localities. The Presque Isle Band soon arrived and was greeted with a chorus of whistles from Sprague's steam mill and Johnson & Phair's starch factory. The Band returned the compliment by playing an excellent piece of music. Large delegations from the Presque Isle and the Fort Fairfield campaign clubs were also present with their torches. The people continued to arrive until it was estimated by gentlemen who took pains to do some counting that at least 1,200 persons were present, and all this in spite of the fact that only seven miles distant, H. M. Plaisted and Solon Chase, were hurling forth denunciations of the Republican party. As there was no building large enough to hold those assembled, the meeting was held in open air, on a gentle eminence in front of M. C. Smith's store.

The assemblage was called to order by G. H. Smith, Esq., who introduced as the first speaker Edward Wiggin, Esq., of Mayseville. Mr. Wiggin spoke about ten minutes in an able and pertinent manner. His remarks were received with applause. The next speaker was Mr. Matthews of the Aroostook Republican. Mr. M. occupied about three-quarters of an hour, devoting considerable attention to the Greenback heresies. His remarks were able and convincing, and heartily applauded. He was followed by Hon. George Cutler, who spoke about half an hour in a forcible manner. His remarks were also well received. The last speaker was Mr. Whitney of Maysville, who two years ago was an ardent Greenbacker, but not being pleased with the movements of that party, has returned to the Republican ranks. His remarks, though short, were spicy, and enthusiastically cheered. Hearty cheers were then given for the speakers and the Band, followed by a tremendous one for "Garfield and victory." A torch light procession of about 150 was then formed and headed by the Band, marched up the road about a quarter of a mile and back again, making an inspiring and beautiful scene. The speakers and Band were then invited to a repast, in the hall, prepared by the ladies of Easton, and it is but justice to say that campaign speaking and playing are productive of good appetites. Having finished lunch, Mr. Matthews called for three cheers for the ladies of Easton which were given with a will, after which the Band played several fine pieces. This closed the meeting.

The watch fires of Republicanism are burning brightly in the "woods of Aroostook," and the citizens of the county are alive to the issues of the hour. Unless all signs fail, the 13th of September will show big Republican gains all through this region. S.

Easton, Aug. 17th.

Republican Jubilee at Holden.

The arrangements for the flag-raising and meeting at Holden this evening insure a very attractive occasion. Twenty members of the Garfield and Arthur Glee Club of this city, in uniform, will take part in the exercises, leaving here at six o'clock, in Mr. F. O. Beal's excursion wagon, which will be decorated with flags for the occasion. Upon arrival at Holden a supper will be served to the club by the ladies. The flag will then be raised and saluted. The meeting at the Town Hall will be addressed by Rev. R. L. Howard and J. W. Milliken, Esq., and the Glee Club will sing several selections. After the meeting there will be a torchlight procession and the club and speakers will be escorted part of the way home. The members of the club are anticipating a very enjoyable moonlight ride home. And we think the Republicans of Holden can anticipate a very enjoyable and satisfactory meeting.

REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION.

Torchlight Parade and Flag-raising this Evening.

This evening the Republican campaign organizations will have a torchlight parade in connection with two flag-raisings that will take place in different parts of the city. The procession will be formed in East Market Square at half past seven o'clock, and headed by the Bangor Band will march over the following route:

Down Exchange street to Parker & Peake's boot and shoe manufactory, where a Garfield and Arthur flag will be flung to the breeze; then up Exchange to Kenduskeag bridge; across the bridge to Main; up Main to Union; up Union to High; up High to Ohio; up Ohio to Thomas, up Thomas to James; through James to Union; when a halt will be made at the residence of John Dole, Esq., where a handsome campaign banner will be unfurled. Speeches will be made by Senator Hamlin and Hon. Lewis Barker. At the close of this ceremony the line of march will be resumed down West Broadway to Cedar street; down Cedar to Fifth; down Fifth to Hammond; down Hammond to State; up State to Broadway; up Broadway to Garland; through Garland to French; down French to State; down State to East Market Square, where the line will be dismissed.

A correspondent writing from the Ocean Wave House, Rye Beach, N. H., under date of August 21st, speaks in the highest terms of the house, the guests, and the place as a summer resort. Quite a sprinkling of the boarders are from Bangor and Brewer, in company with friends from Washington, D. C. Last Thursday evening the guests enjoyed a social "hop" in the dining hall. The music was excellent, and those who took part in the dance appeared to enjoy it finely. Refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake. Col. W. S. Baker, the genial and popular landlord, will take charge of the new public house, "Hotel North," at Augusta, Me., which he has leased, as soon as the season closes here.

A PUBLIC DUTY.

We are not in the habit of puffing any sort of patent medicines in our columns, for the business of a newspaper is to let people know what is going on in the world, and not to lend aid to what may be an imposition. But we happen to know Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., and can personally testify to the excellence of the medicine which the doctor calls "Favorite Remedy." And if a word of ours will persuade anybody to use it, and thus find relief from suffering, no professional etiquette shall hinder us from saying that word. For diseases of the blood, kidneys and bowels it has no equals. We would not be without it for five times the dollar that it costs.—Daily Times. d&w2w aug20

A GOOD INTRODUCTION.

Favorite Remedy was introduced into Connecticut in 1877, at the solicitation of Rev. J. G. Smith, of Hartford, who, after having suffered for years from Chronic Liver Disease and Indigestion, obtained the medicine and was cured. This faithful pastor, thinking of the bodies as well as the souls of his people, at once commenced the advocacy of "Favorite Remedy" among them, and has been the happy instrument of saving scores of lives. Favorite Remedy is now as well and favorably known in Connecticut as along the Hudson. One dollar a bottle. All druggists sell it. Dr. David Kennedy, Proprietor, Rondout, N. Y. d&w2w aug20

Montgomery Center, Vt., Feb. 25th, 1880.
Gentlemen—I feel it a duty and a pleasure not only to acknowledge my gratitude to you personally, but also to bring my case before the public, and testify after eight years intense suffering, what your Kidney-Wort has done for me. For the past year I have been taking different medicines for Kidney Disease, but derived no benefit. Have had trouble with my Kidneys for eight years very bad by spells, and for several months able to do but very little work, at times passing blood from the bladder, and experienced a prickly sensation all over; I was fearful of paralysis, and was dizzy, afraid to stoop over from fear of falling. At last in January commenced taking your Kidney-Wort and found almost immediate relief. One box made a new man of me. I feel almost as well as ever in my life, and I sincerely believe it will restore to health all who may be similarly afflicted.
MICHAEL COTO.

MESSRS. WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO.,
Gentlemen—The above named person has been in our employ the past three years, and we know him to be a man of truth and honor; we believe and know his condition and statements to be true. We know of others in this vicinity equally as thankful for the benefits derived from the use of this medicine.
Respectfully yours,
SHERMAN BRADISH & CO.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 7½ to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $32.50 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

WHAT WILL ELIZA SAY?

That is the silly remark of Joshua K Osgood, on accepting the nomination of the so-called temperance convention in Portland The Boston Herald says that if Eliza, his good wife, is a sensible girl she will say 'They've made a tool of Joshua I'll teach him better when he gets home! Setting himself up for Governor, indeed! It's all he can do to govern himself, with my help and the Lord's S'pose he can't see that all they want is to elect a Fusion Governor and Legislature, and then where'll our temperance Legislature be? Governor, is it? To go rampaging over the State and get 3000 or 4000 votes, while those thieving chaps that tried to steal the State last year scoop in the offices. I'll govern him, when he gets home! It's provoking to see how little it takes to upset a man Now, there's Joshua He's done a world of good talking to poor, fallen men and getting up reform clubs, and persuading young fellows to sign the pledge. Every man he gets to stop drinking is a nail in the rumseller door. Folks can't sell what nobody wants to buy I wish every bit was buried in the bottom of the ocean, but that ain't Joshua's forte. It's his business to help men and save them, and not to set himself up as the boss constable of the State for that seems to be these lunatics' ideas of a Governor Don't Joshua know that it is the presidential year, and that everybody is in downright earnest? What sort of help does he expect to get in executing temperance laws from folks that would try to steal the government, and when caught at it and sent home with their tails between their legs come up the next year and ask the people to give 'em what they failed to carry off? And how long does he think the Republicans will keep Maine at the head of the temperance States if he and his clubs go back on them in every pinch? There's some things almost as bad as liquor, and cheating in the election and tampering with the returns, and trying to hold to offices that you have been voted out of one of 'em I just wish Joshua was here this minute I'd give him my opinion of his third party antics pretty quick I s'pose he thinks I'd like to be spoken of as Mrs Governor Mrs Fiddlesticks! I don't take kindly to being Mrs Make-Believe Rub for Governor, so that some folks who've bands ought to be used in peeking stone for the State may grab the chestnuts that Joshua has pulled out of the fire!

And that is what Eliza will say or words to that effect if she is the woman we take her to be

A POPULAR SPEAKER

One of the most popular and effective speakers on the stump in Maine, is the Hon William P Frye who has so strong a grip upon the affections of the people of the Second District, that this year he will have no opposition worth mentioning Mr Frye is doing good work in the Fourth District He spoke at Dover the other afternoon, to a crowd that feasted upon his words for an hour amid a drenching rain At Hampden, Saturday night, he had one of the best meetings of the campaign the people expressing themselves in the most extravagant terms of praise concerning his speech Last night Mr Frye spoke at Oldtown, to-night he will speak in Plymouth, and from thence will proceed to Knox county We shall remember with gratitude his eloquent and effective efforts in this District On Sunday last and yesterday Mr Frye and his accomplished wife, were the guests of Senator Hamlin

STATE FINANCES

The Republican Legislature of last winter increased the State tax $225 000, and the Republican State Treasurer has called for a loan of $300,000 How do Republican tax payers relish a revolutionary government —Calais Times

The above is an illustration of the well known fact that half a truth is often the worst kind of a falsehood It is true that the State tax is $225 000 larger than last year, but the inference that the Times leaves its readers to draw, that the expenses of the State government are larger this year than last year is false. Our current State expenses will be $25 000 less than last year The additional tax is called for first to make up a deficiency of $62 000 last year arising from the fact that the expenses were more than the receipts second to pay $125 000 borrowed several years ago when the tax was improperly reduced $225 000 less than it was last year, and third to pay the $40 000 expenses incurred in maintaining peace while the counting out outrage was threatening to involve our State in civil war The $300,000 loan of which the Times speaks is simply a new issue of bonds for one, two and three years to take up a similar amount of State bonds which come due this month

HOW AN OLD SOLDIER REGARDS IT

Our Orono correspondent writes A letter received here by a member of the old First Maine Heavy Artillery from a friend now in Michigan, formerly a Captain in the Regiment, contains a few sentences on political matters which may be interesting to your readers The writer says

"I see by the papers that the campaign in good old Maine is warming up, considerably, if not more, Good! I hope every Republican will work earnestly to rebuke the thieves (who so nearly consummated the theft of a State) by a good old fashioned majority for Davis, Republican principles and honest government" Alluding to the recent speech of Senator Wade Hampton at Staunton, Va, he says "I think Hancock must feel queerly on reading 'these are the principles for which Lee and Jackson fought for four long years' If there are any old soldiers left with the Democrats, this unguarded speech of Hampton, (unguarded and honest because made among political friends and sympathizers) must cause them to call a halt. The dose is too palpably nauseating for any honest northern man. I conceived a genuine admiration for our old Corps Commander during the memorable campaign of '64, but it was not of long duration The time has long past that he stood a hero in my estimation Order No 40, its accompanying history and fearful consequences, served to change very materially my opinion of General Hancock. I would as soon support Wade Hampton himself for President as he * * * * The campaign is beginning to warm up in Michigan. We have a good strong State ticket and are bound to win. I would like to see you of the glorious old 4th wake up and give Capt. Boutelle an old time majority He has fought a good fight and deserves the hearty support of every lover of country and right."

The Bridgton News, edited by Maj. H. A. Shorey, a thorough-going temperance man, says:

"That ridiculous political movement for the encouragement of which the "True Republican" is issued, has about subsided. It has no following among men who are really anxious for the success of Prohibition, and no one of any responsibility can be found ready to stand as sponsor for it. Mr. Nye is understood to deny all connection with it; likewise Mr. Chase. If Gen Dow is in the movement he will hardly care to endorse the scurrility of the paper, and owes it to himself to take early opportunity to say this. Very few if any temperance men who have heretofore affiliated with the Republicans are in the movement

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

Hon. Henry Tallman was nominated for Congress yesterday by the prohibitionists of this district We understand him to say that he declines the honor —[Bath Times

The first orator of the Greenback party has succeeded in proving to many Calais Republican Greenbackers that they are simply being used to secure a Democratic victory —[Calais Advertiser

The grand cavalcade last night numbered twenty-three horses If it had been a Republican show, we certainly should not have taken much pride in it The peculiar uniform, if uniform they call it, was strikingly reminding of night riders and Ku Klux. However, if their appearance pleases themselves and their employers, all right, it is none of our business —[Bath Times

Harvey D Hadlock Esq, of Bucksport, whose recent conversion to Republicanism in consequence of the dark and devious ways of the Fusionists has made such a decided sensation, will address audiences in Waldo county during one week previous to election

It is noticeable that the Fusion canvass in this State is largely carried on by and in the interest of the prominent actors in the counting-out villainy Eben F Pillsbury, the chief rascal has recently been imported from Boston to defend the steal, and A P Gould, adviser of the Governor, is also speaking Fogg and S S Brown are candidates for office and Parker and Monroe claim a vindication The appearance of these men so prominently at the front, makes the issue clear in our State election, as to their doings If the people approve of them, let them vote the Fusion or Democratic tickets If they disapprove their votes should be on the Republican side —Rockland Free Press

The latest political device in Maine is the 'Enforced Prohibitory Party,' which has nominated a candidate for Governor That party is liable to become hampered by so many patent double back action attachments as to forget what it really was begun for —Providence Journal

The correspondent of the Boston Journal who has been in Maine, observing the canvass, writes that paper

The Republican speakers that are now stumping the State make prominent these issues and ask the support of the people in the condemnation of the Garcelon frauds in the protection of the ballot box and a full free and fair count of every vote cast in the United States, for a protective tariff for American industry and labor, for the maintenance of the principle of nationality as against the doctrine of State sovereignty and for the inviolability of the public debt and the sacredness of the resumption pledge

It is patent that the Fusionists have become discouraged and no champions that they can put on the stump will be able to stem the tide of condemnation that is swelling in the breasts of the people

Senator Logan, on his way home from Maine, was interviewed in New York by a reporter of the Evening Post, and said

"The outlook in Maine is very encouraging for the Republicans The meetings everywhere are largely attended and very enthusiastic, more so than they have been for years as I have been told by well informed persons I have no doubt that the State will go Republican The act of the coalition canvassers in attempting to deprive the Republicans of the offices gained by them has been an important factor in the campaign It has braced up the Republicans and has brought in a large number of the independent floating voters to our side The result this year will not be left in doubt"

The speeches of the blatant Sam Carey for the Fusion ticket in Maine are of so extreme a cast and smack so strongly of communism that they are alarming the fusion managers and he is likely to be asked to moderate his expressions —N Y Evening Post

The Farmington Chronicle says From every portion of this county the most cheering reports of Republican gains continue to come in Almost every day we learn of Greenbackers that are returning to the Republican fold, and of Democrats that are disgusted with the sell out and will either not vote at all or will support the Republican ticket The Fusionists are working with desperation but it is no go—every indication betokens a grand Republican victory on the 13th proximo Republicans push on the column There is work to be done. Organize for the great struggle and prepare for the victory

POLITICAL NOTES

Secretary Sherman left for Ohio Saturday night, to engage in campaign work

The Moline Review says Charles Barnum is not showman Barnum He has no show—neither has his party

Gen Hawley has been at the Republican headquarters, in New York, and says Connecticut is sure for Garfield

The Hon George Nichols, chairman of the Republican State committee of Vermont, recently received the following telegram from Senator Blaine, of Maine "You are having a splendid dress parade in Vermont In Maine the fight is actual and bitter —J G. BLAINE"

If lying stealing and murdering unoffending citizens be any glory the Democratic party is radiant

Hancock is the Goliath of the Philistine Democracy Garfield is the Republican David that will 'sling' him up Salt River

We hear that Indiana will be the scene of Gen Butler's first labors as a Democratic convert Also that he is likely to be a delegate to the Democratic State Convention, and further that he is not disposed to take the gubernatorial nomination this year, but if he lives is to have it next year by common consent —[Boston Traveller

It has been suggested that the Democrats of Indiana organize the workingmen of the State into clubs under the name of "The English forclosers"

It is time to call for "a change" when business is booming.

Those who have talked with General Weaver say that his treatment in the South was such, that he is hesitating whether in the interest of good government he should not withdraw and throw his influence to the support of General Garfield

The workingmen don't hurrah for English. They don't want him to come around They say he can smell a mortgage on a poor man's house and lot a mile away —Boston Traveller

The Democratic managers have published a "Hancock and English Campaign Songster," of which they says "Every true Democrat who can sing, or help make a noise in the chorus, should send for copies." Among the songs is one beginning "Once again our glorious banner on the breeze we throw, With the stars above us floating we'll charge upon the foe." If an attempt is made to sing that song among the "men who followed Lee and Jackson," there will be more "noise in the chorus" than the Northern wing of the party will care for.

It is estimated that there will be 4,000 Republican meetings in Indiana during the pending canvass.—Boston Herald.

Large numbers of Knights of Pythias arrived at St. Louis Sunday night and Monday, from nearly all parts of the country.

WHY AM I ACTING TO-DAY WITH THE REPUBLICAN PARTY?

Horace Greeley once published the reasons why he was a whig, and may it not be proper for me to give my friends and enemies, as well, some of my reasons for being a Republican? And first let me say that before the Republican party had an existence I had embraced the principles upon which it was subsequently founded, and, as an outgrowth of these principles, I attended the first meeting ever called in this State to organize a party in the interest of free States, free territories and free men—consequently I am politically speaking, as old a Republican as there is in the State From that time to the present I have never had a single feeling or thought but that of love and respect for the principles of the Republican party, and when I have seen, as I think I have sometimes, the party losing sight of its principles through the trickery and chicanery of corrupt and designing politicians, I have felt as the fond and affectionate parent feels when he sees his first born and only son going astray from the paths of rectitude and virtue, and I have chided, warned and rebuked, not always wisely perhaps yet honestly and with an unvarying love for the old and tried principles of the party

One of the wrongs of the party of which I complained was the demonetization of silver thereby contracting the legal tender circulating medium of the country and of necessity making what remained of greater value than before, the operation of which, I believed, was to make the rich richer and the poor poorer Another contemplated wrong of the party was the destruction of the greenbacks, which would have operated in the same way To both of these I was and am strongly opposed, and so strong is my opposition that I would fain have joined honest men, of all shades of party politics, to defeat those ends It was for this purpose that I gave my influence and vote with the Greenback party last year. I knew then, as other Republican Greenbackers knew, that the party was not a Simon pure unadulterated, Greenback party all such knew, feared and deplored the fact, that the conventions were manipulated and largely controled by the old anti-war Democrats, the life long enemies of the Republican party and its principles men who were not then and never were in sympathy with the principles of the Greenback party and whose only object was the destruction of the Republican party and consequently the elevation of the Democratic party to power Yet hoping against hope and protesting that we were not Democrats and never could be sold out to that party, we worked on and when election day came, voted for the nominees of the Fusion party, but were as everybody knew, defeated in the popular vote It was as well established as any historical fact, within a few days after election that the Republican party had elected a majority of both branches of the Legislature and that Davis would be the Governor through the action of that body As a law abiding citizen, I at once as in duty bound yielded my assent to the constitutionally expressed will of the people. Imagine then my surprise on learning that there was to be an effort on the part of the Governor and his council to count out enough elected Republicans to give the control of the Legislature to the Fusionists and consequent Governorship of the State to Smith the Greenback candidate It was a long time before I could or would give credence to any such report I read carefully all I could find on both sides pro and con, among which were the appeals of the Republicans to the canvassing board, to refer the disputed questions to the Court for their judicial decision as by the constitution is provided, and the answer came from Councillor Fogg the not very respectful language that he would as soon refer them to a company of Australian jackasses At last however, the Governor was induced to refer certain questions submitted by Hon Lot M Morrill to said Court and all honest men were made glad thereby feeling that as the Court are by the Constitution the sole judges of the law their decision would be final

The submission of these questions by the Governor was prima facie evidence to the people that he, at least, meant to be honest But when the decision was rendered, a decision preeminently in the interest of the people and the people's government the Governor utterly refused to recognize it as of any binding force The Council called it partisan, the Greenback press denominated it a stump speech, made by a subsidized, a Blaine Court This was too much for me and I was compelled to come to the conclusion that it was then, and had been for months, the purpose of the Governor and his Council and the leading politicians of the Fusion party composed mainly of the old anti war Democrats, to disfranchize the legal voters of the State and to thwart the constitutionally expressed will of the people

This conclusion was strengthened by the fact, that thirty seven Republicans had been counted out by the canvassing board, for, as they said latent defects in the election returns while not a single Fusionist had suffered loss by such defects Then came the Report of the committee on the condition of the election returns clearly showing usurpation corruption and fraud the most glaring and wicked ever perpetrated in any New England State Don't tell me my friends, that the erasures alterations, substitutions and forgeries were made by the Republicans after the returns came into their hands, for the fact that the final tabulation of them by the Governor and Council and that the certificates of election as sent from the Secretary of State's Office were in exact conformity with their altered condition as found and reported by said committee is sufficient answer to any such baseless supposition and if more is wanted, it is found in the minority report of that committee made by Ingalls and Hill, both Fusion members They say "the evidence being uncontradicted the undersigned cannot make a denial of the facts proved by it and can only withhold their assent to the conclusions arrived at by the majority of the committee"

The evidence referred to here is the mutilated returns and the testimony of men without regard to their party politics including ex Governor Garcelon, E K Smart, counted in Fusionist for County Attorney for Washington County, Edward C Moody of the Council and others not necessary to mention Thus, as briefly as I am able, I have stated the situation in which I found myself, to wit, acting with a conglomerate party, professedly in the interest of the people and reform, yet attempting to thwart the expressed will of the people by a most stupendous crime, and setting at defiance the legal decisions of our court, thus tending to bring about a state of anarchy and revolution As an honest man, a man who never had a sore head, a man who never embraced a single political principle, except as he thought, he saw the interest of the people more or less involved in it, a man who had been taught by the teachings of Washington, that "in a country like ours, if the people suffered political wrong the place to right these wrongs was at the ballot box" I could not countenance the destruction of the right of the suffrage, when in that destruction, my rights and liberties and the rights and liberties of the people were involved. Hence I have dropped the questions of finance, and have again identified myself with the party I aided to organize and bring into power, and through its agency I hope to aid in putting the stamp of condemnation on the attempted outrage and fraud of the Fusion party

And now, my dear Republican Greenback friends, let me ask you if you are not being deceived? Are you not being led by designing men directly into the camp of your old enemy, or are you voluntarily, with your eyes and ears open, going there? One of these positions you certainly occupy. A few of you are already there Samuel F Cary of Ohio is there, and came from the Hancock camp in that State to this, for the sole purpose of leading you astray. Did he not tell you that the war of 1861 was not caused by the Democratic party? Are you ready to admit that you have read the history of that war for so many years all wrong? Some of you helped make that history and you thought then and since that you had an enemy in the rear, as well as in front in the form of the Democratic party. We that stayed at home knew you had. Cary told you that he hoped that you would carry this State for Plaisted, for then there would be some hope of carrying Ohio Did he intimate that Ohio was to be carried for Weaver and Greenbacks? Mr. Cary says in the New Haven Union of Aug. 12th that he is for Hancock; that the Greenback vote in Oct. in that State will not exceed eight or ten thousand, and that, in November Hancock will get two-thirds of these. He intends to deceive you. Are you ready to be sold?

THE INDEPENDENT TEMPERANCE ACTION

[From the Lewiston Journal]

The action of the two conventions at Portland on Thursday, in condemning Governor Davis on temperance grounds, and nominating Joshua K Osgood of Gardiner as an independent temperance candidate for Governor, does not represent one prohibitionist out of fifty in this State It was the action of not more than ten temperance Republicans out of the more than 50 000 in the State, of about thirty temperance reformers who have usually voted the Democratic ticket, several of whom last year voted for Governor Davis, and about their Fusion politicians, many of whom appeared in a temperance convention for the first time, who intend to vote for Plaisted in any event, and who are urging on and aiding this movement as their last hope to secure Fusion success The great body of the temperance men of the State, observing that the movers in the scheme had arranged to nominate a gubernatorial candidate in any event did not think it worth the while to go to Portland, to vote against it in the morning meeting to which they would have been admitted, and concluded to stay at home A few men like ex Governors A P. Morrill and Perham and Revs John Allen, D B Randall, R I Howard and others—veterans in the temperance cause—were present to protest against a movement in the name of temperance, whose influence would tend to help into power a party which had always opposed prohibition and temperance, and which is at this very hour on trial for a wicked attempt to overthrow the ballot box

No unprejudiced temperance Republican could be present at these meetings and observe the interest manifested by ex Councillor Chase, ex Librarian Sticey Senatorial candidate Eaton and other Fusion leaders in bringing about the result reached, without having his eyes opened to the fact that the counting-out leaders are looking to this so called temperance movement to take enough votes from the Republican ticket to save them from the condemnation which awaits them

These counting out apostles will find themselves wofully disappointed when the votes are counted There are some temperance Republicans who honestly think there is cause for complaint, but very few who are disposed to vote so as to accommodate Capt Chase and the Fusionists, and by the day of election the most of these will see the Democratic milk in the cocoanut, and decline to give half a vote to Plaisted by casting it for an independent candidate. These men are already seeing that either the Republican or the Fusion ticket is to be elected and are asking themselves what have temperance men to hope for in Fusion success? Many are beginning to ask whether it is just the thing to turn out a party because in a few cities of the State, where the temperance sentiment is weak the law is not well enforced when it is well enforced in more than three-fourths of the State and to bring into power a party which would not enforce prohibition at all, and which is even in favor of license

We predict therefore, that this independent temperance movement originating it may be conceded in the purest motives but industriously nursed by Fusion leaders to further their partisan ends to the detriment of temperance will simply result in catching the votes of some of the temperance reformers of Democratic proclivities while temperance Republicans will vote the Republican ticket almost solidly, and the Fusion politicians who shouted for an independent nomination will slyly cast their ballots for the Fusion candidates

SAMUEL F CARY

The following from an exchange shows what a prominent Ohio Democrat thinks of Gen S F Cary

Donn Piatt can go up to the head He has certainly succeeded in sounding the loudest blast given on the stump since the days of John Randolph If anything 'meaner' than the following has been spoken of one speaker by another since the birth of politics we have not seen it It is almost sad to reflect that it is what a prominent Greenbacker thinks of Sam Cary himself the prince of Greenbackers Donn made a speech at Worthington, Ohio and in the course of his remarks said

"The trouble with Samuel Fenton Cary is that his very existence is a casualty He never was designed for any known purpose and of consequence appears among us as a very unnecessary man I was requested in Columbus to answer a speech he has been making for fifty years [laughter] Sometimes it is thrown out in favor of temperance, sometimes in support half of the late war sometimes in favor of [illegible], sometimes in favor of a monument to somebody, sometimes for one thing and sometimes another, but always the same agonizing howl and always paid for I respectfully declined for that speech cannot be answered I might as well be asked to reply to a steam whistle, a Chinese gong or a bad smell [Loud laughter and cries of That's so] I think Samuel Fenton Cary might be used to swell a procession to act as a fire-alarm or a fog horn [laughter] but he always reminds me of a story told by the late Sidney Smith, who said that a farmer could always tell the number of the coming litter by counting the teats provided by kind nature for the approaching family of swine The witty Sidney said that there was generally a teat for each pig But sometimes, through an eccentricity of nature, one pig more appeared than had been provided for In this case the poor little piggy went fighting from teat to teat driven off by the lawful possessor until driven by hunger and desperation it would seize the caudal appendage of the indifferent mother, and then suck and squeal and squeal and suck until exhausted nature found relief in death In this way Samuel Fenton Cary has come into this cruel world, without design, and of course without provision, and he has gone fighting for a teat from party to party, until at last he has fastened on the tail of the old Democratic swine and there he squeals and sucks and sucks and squeals until Divine Providence shall remove him to another and better world"

The Argus condemns in the strongest possible terms the ruffianly outrage committed upon the Republican procession in Deering, the other evening We wonder what Democratic outrage would stir the indignation of the Commercial?

We call attention to the manly, noble letter of Hon J D Teague, copied in our columns from the Aroostook Republican, Mr Teague is one of the thoughtful business men of that county, and embraced the Greenback doctrine because he differed from the main body of the Republican party on the demonetization of silver and the volume of greenback currency He considers those questions settled for the present, and does not propose to remain with the Greenback party longer, when to do so would be to strengthen the arm of the old Democratic party, his mortal political enemy He has, therefore, taken the course which every honest Republican Greenbacker should, and returned to the Republican party.

"I'll tell you just how strong I want a government to be. If in the darkest corner of the South there is a poor man who is a citizen of the United States, and another man on any pretense unlawfully deprives him of any one of his rights, I would provide the government with arms long enough and strong enough to lay out its shield over his defenceless head and to drag his persecutors to justice and punishment, and, if necessary, to death! [Applause] If the courts cannot command a posse, I would command the army and the navy of the country to protect him As Patrick Henry said in the House of Burgesses, "If that be treason make the most of it," so I say, "If that be centralization, make the most of it!"—Stanley Matthews in Maine

James Thorp, of Kansas City, a workman in the Missouri Pacific Railroad machine shop, killed a negro yesterday.

Ouray went to that point to assist the Commissioner in prevailing upon the Utes to sign the treaty. If Ouray dies the treaty will never be signed by the Southern and White River Utes.

Private Consultation.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23. The case of Elijah Alliger was up to-day before Justice Smith and a private consultation was held between the Judge and the counsel. The defendant's counsel asked that he be admitted to bail in a nominal sum pending trial. He therefore waived further examination and the accused was removed to the care of the central office detectives as his friends had not procured bondsmen up to the close of the morning session of the court.

Judge Smith this afternoon required Elijah Alliger to furnish $5000 additional bail on the charge preferred by Merritt Trimple.

LONDON, Aug. 23. A correspondent at Bucharest gives the following additional details of the murder of Dr. Parsons, the American missionary: One of the assassins placed the muzzle of his rifle close to Dr. Parsons' servant, fired at and killed him instantly. Dr. Parsons then started up, but before he could say or do anything a bullet pierced his heart. The two Circassians threw the bodies over the precipiece at the foot of which they were found after a few days. An American residing at Ismidt telegraphed the fact to Goschen, the British Ambassador, who communicated them immediately to Heap, the American Consul General. A squad of soldiers were sent to the camp of the Circassians and they threatened to shoot the whole tribe unless the murderers were surrendered, whereupon the murderers were delivered to the authorities. The affair caused great consternation at Constantinople and people travel armed and if possible with an armed guard when riding or driving in the suburbs.

Hon. W. E. Foster, chief Secretary for Ireland, stated to-day that the Government do not think it necessary to ask for exceptional powers for the preservation of peace and the protection of life and property in Ireland. They do not know, he said, whether they can rely during the coming autumn and winter on common law. They do not fear an uprising but the condition of the country is precarious and should the necessity arrest, the Government would not hesitate to summon Parliament in order to obtain additional powers; but they do not think the occasion likely to arise.

NIGHT BLOOMING CEREUS. Our correspondent writes: A beautiful sight was witnessed by a large number of people, at the residence of Miss Crawford and Mrs. J. Stockwell, in Winterport, Friday, on the unfolding of a large Night Blooming Cereus. Mrs. S. invited a lady friend to come and see if it was going to open that evening and while she was gone it burst forth and begun to unfold. A messenger was sent for her in haste, and many others were hastily told of the opening of the first one in town which was greatly admired until a late hour. The flower measured ten and one-half inches across.

FOR THE LADIES. A new color called moonbeam is a soft silver green. Gilt pins for bonnets are now made with pearl heads. Belts with ribbon bows are more popular than sashes. Fine checked woollen goods are imported for the winter. Flower wreaths for bonnets are either all leaves or all flowers. White neckties are less enormous than they were a few months ago. A new style of spring bracelet with mosaic ornament has appeared in plaited gold. White woollen coats will probably be worn in early autumn as they were last year. Rounded trails are draped by three shirrings and fall in three large waves, one over the other. The "Nouvelle Heloise" is the name of a new costume of a turtle-dove color, with changeable stripes. A cord ending in two balls of ravelled silk takes the place of the bow of ribbon on a sunshade handle. Double rows of fringe set on the edges of embroidered galloon are used to trim the skirts of short dresses. A lawn tennis costume of which the principal feature is a pair of Turkish trousers, is new and extremely ugly.

THE COAL TRADE. The condition of the anthracite trade continues to improve. It is more marked, however, as we have previously stated, in those offices that have been cutting prices to the greatest extent. These companies which are practically sticking to their publicly announced rates note only a slight improvement. Prices are higher, although, as a rule, not up to circular rates as yet. It is pretty well understood that there will be an advance in prices on the first of September of from five to twenty-five cents a ton. There is a disinclination on the part of nearly all to advance the price of steam sizes, as it is well known that bituminous would come into very close competition. It is thought, however, by most of the trade, that stove and chestnut sizes would bear an advance; the Pennsylvania Coal Company has issued a circular dated to-day, quoting the same prices as the last circular issued by this company. These prices will be good until about the end of the month, when the company will probably advance them from five to twenty cents a ton according to sizes.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

THE "RACKET" DANCE. Concerning the popular new dance at Atlantic City, a correspondent writes: It is not a waltz, nor a gallop, nor a polka, it is the "Racket." From the slow, slipping side waltz of a few years back, when it was flagrant to lift your feet from the floor, we have gone by stages to the Boston, the old polka, the slide, the heel-and-toe polka, until this last stage has been reached, when the thing is not to keep the feet on the floor. The Racket sends its votaries wildly pitching to right and left up and down with kicks and leaps that approach the can-can, and it is as well suited to polite society as a Sioux war dance, or the Carmagnole of the French Revolution. The Racket can be danced to anything that is loud and in fast time, whether waltz, polka or gallop, best with the latter. Technically it consists of three sliding steps to the right, one slide to the left, to the right, to the left, to the right, then three to the left, and continue. The body is swayed more than in skating, and the vigor and energy with which it is always danced renders it as violent an exercise as jumping a rope, and not quite as graceful. Sometimes the partners are not held as in other round dances. They simply take hold of hands and racket it around in that way, reproducing the scenes in the surf of mornings. Hair dressing needs to be firmly done, and dresses to be of stout material and strong sewing to stand it. Philadelphia claims to have invented the dance, such as it is, and the sons and daughters of its best families kick around on social occasions in a way that Lotta and Alice Oates were supposed to have the monopoly of.

In accordance with general order No. 10 from headquarters department of Maine G. A. R., Chief Mustering Officer John F. Foster, organized Freeman McGilvery Post No. 30, at Searsport, on Friday evening last, being assisted by Officer of the Day, James F. Maloney; Post Adjutant, Fred A. Chamberlain and Comrade J. A. McKusick, all of B. H. Beale Post 12, of Bangor.

The following officers were elected and installed: Geo. L. Merrill, P. C.; Joshua W. Black, S. V. C.; Edward B. Sheldon, J. V. C.; James A. Colson, Adjt.; Frank E. Whitcomb, Q. M., Elisha Hopkins, Surg.; Alonzo A. Nye, Chap.; Wm. B. Sawyer, O. of D.; Enoch W. Robbins, O. of G.; Saml. A. Prescott, S. M.; Robert G. Ames, Q. M. S.

A committee was appointed to prepare by-laws for the Post, to report as soon as convenient, and it was decided that for the present, they would hold regular meetings on Thursday evening, of each week. Further business was postponed until a future meeting on account of the lateness of the hour.

It is expected that quite a number of new Posts will be organized before the year closes. The Department officers and delegates will hold a semi-annual meeting for the transaction of important business on September ninth, and have a grand reunion of soldiers on the tenth, when a good time is expected. All Posts in the State are expected to interest themselves in this matter, and turn out in large numbers.

REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION.

Grand Torchlight Parade and Flag Raisings.

SPEECHES BY SENATOR HAMLIN AND HON. O. C. MOORE.

The Republican campaign organizations, under command of Col. Farnham, made their first torchlight parade last evening and the affair passed off in a manner highly satisfactory to all interested. The procession made a grand appearance, there being about two hundred men in line in full uniform, as it passed through the principal streets of the city. Although no notice had been given many of the houses along the line of march were brilliantly illuminated, and many beautifully decorated with flags and lanterns, the loyal citizens of Bangor being ever ready to show their adherence to those great principles, a free ballot and an honest Government as advocated by the Republican party. As the procession marched past these houses ringing Bangor cheers were given for the illuminations and decorations. We regret that our time and space forbids a more extended notice of the same.

The procession was formed in East Market Square at half-past seven o'clock, and headed by the Bangor Band marched down to Parker & Peakes' manufactory, on Exchange street, where a campaign banner was unfurled, bearing the names of our candidates. As the flag was thrown out it was greeted with hearty cheers, followed by three more for the members of the firm and a selection by the Band. The procession then marched up Exchange street to the bridge, saluting the WHIG office and large banner with cheers, and proceeded up Main street to Union; up Union to High; up High to Ohio; up Ohio to Thomas, up Thomas to James; through James to Union, where a halt was made in front of the handsome residence of John Dole, Esq.

The house presented a magnificent appeapance, being beautifully decked with flags and Chinese lanters. The large vestibule was draped with American flags, in the centre of which was a fine picture of our standard bearer, Gen. James A. Garfield. Small flags were artistically arranged in all of the windows which were brilliantly illuminated, while the festoons of Chinese lanterns added materially to the effect of the occasion. A stand had been put up in the spacious yard and from this the speakers addressed the very large crowd in attendance.

After the men had been drawn up in line, a handsome banner, with the names of Garfield and Arthur and Davis and Boutelle, was thrown to the breeze and greeted with enthusiastic cheers. Col. Farnham then introduced our beloved fellow-citizen, Senator Hamlin, who spoke briefly. He said: "Members of the Loyal League, Garfield and Davis Club, and last but not least, members of the Veteran Guards, I greet you. We are assembled here this evening to witness the patriotism of our citizen who sends forth to the breeze the stars and stripes, every fold of which we worship. Why is it we have rekindled the watchfires on every hill-side? It is because we know that the same responsibilities that rested upon us at the commencement of the war are again thrust upon us. The history of that flag is a glorious one. It was the emblem that carried us through the rebellion, and it never has, nor never shall be trailed in dishonor. We have tested it at the formation of our government, and again when rebellion threatened to destroy the Union, and it has ever been triumphant. We owe great obligations to it, and it must continue to float over a happy and independent people. We must now maintain our rights by the ballot, as we did by the bullet. The speaker then paid his respects to Gen. Plaisted and his Greenback child, and said we are going to whip them so thoroughly that they wont know what hurt them. In closing, Senator Hamlin called upon every man to vindicate the memory of those fallen heroes who laid down their lives to save their country, by sustaining the principles for which they fought.

At the close of his remarks, of which the above is an imperfect outline, three rousing cheers were given for Senator Hamlin and three more for Mr. Dole. After a selection by the Band Senator Hamlin introduced Hon. O. C. Moore, as coming from New Hampshire, sometimes known as the Granite State, which is emblamatical of the stalwart Republicans there, whom we all love. Mr. Moore is a vigorous and very entertaining speaker, and although his remarks were very brief on this occasion they were direct to the point and none could fail to understand their meaning. He paid a handsome tribute to Senator Hamlin and spoke of the stars and stripes as being the flag that triumphed over all others in this country, and that after the thirteenth of September it would proudly wave over the Fusion flag that was struggling for the supremacy in this State. In closing he related an anecdote in the history of Gen. Garfield, where he saved a detachment of our army by piloting a boat load of provision to prevent their distress, when the officers of the boat utterly refused to sail on account of the perilous condition of the river, by reason of a flood, and said he would thus bravely and safely pilot the ship of the Nation during the next four years. Mr. Moore's remarks were well received and enthusiastically cheered at the close.

After these exercises the speakers and officers were invited into the house where there was an elegant spread, charmingly presided over by Mrs. George E. Dole, who also furnished the guests with button-hole bouquets. The line of march was then resumed as follows: Down West Broadway to Cedar street; down Cedar to Fifth; down Fifth to Hammond; down Hammond to State; up State to Broadway; up Broadway to Garland; through Garland to French; down French to State; down State to East Market Square, where the line was dismissed after repeated cheers.

HOW THE VETERANS ARE GOING!

General Adam E. King, of Maryland, a member of General Hancock's staff during the late war, will be at the soldiers' reunion at Pittsfield to-morrow, and at the Republican mass meeting to be held at that place on Thursday. This distinguished soldier will also address our citizens in Norombega Hall next Monday evening.

There is a rumor that Bangor parties are talking of purchasing the entire point of land at Islesboro and erect a large hotel there next season.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Garfield and Davis Club—A Sickly Attempt of the Fusionists.

Mr. Editor: The Republicans of Newport are thoroughly awake, and last Saturday evening organized a Garfield and Davis Club with a membership of nearly two hundred, including several who voted the Greenback ticket last year, and still there's more to follow. The following officers were elected: Dr. Byron Porter, President; Richard Libby, E. R. Leach, Wallace W. Turner, O. T. Eldridge and C. L. Young, Vice Presidents; Secretary and Treasurer, Frank L. Patten; Executive Committee, E. W. Devereaux, W. A. Frye, H. J. Rowe, F. U. Whiting, Philander Whiting, E. R. Leach and Stephen Hilton. Marshall, Maj. Wm. C. Manning. Mr. O. T. Eldridge, a soldier who gave an arm to save his country, came in accompanied by Mr. G. W. Barden. Both have formerly voted the Greenback ticket, but are now members of our club, and declare their intention to stand by Gov. Davis and the Republican party in the future, and they are not alone in taking this course, as our club list shows and the vote of Newport will confirm.

The Fusionists had a flag-raising this morning between five and six o'clock. Four Democrats and a Republican were present. We did think they could do a little better, but if each is their present condition, "what will the harvest be?"

H.

Rally at Brownville.

Mr. Editor:—There was a grand rally at Brownville, Friday evening, to listen to an address by Hon. Wm. P. Frye. The hall was filled to overflowing and scores could not gain admittance. He spoke for over two hours, and we feel jubilant over it and all are agreed that it was the best speech ever delivered here. Put Brownville down for over one hundred majority for Garfield and Arthur and Davis and Boutelle.

Enthusiastic Meeting at Holden.

The Republicans of Holden held an enthusiastic meeting last evening, which was attended by the Garfield Glee Club from this city. A splendid banner, bearing the names of Garfield and Arthur and Davis and Boutelle, was gracefully drawn out to the breeze amid the rousing cheers of the assembled crowd, after which the members of the club together with the speakers and their ladies, repaired to the banquet hall and sat down to a most superb picnic supper.

After all had partaken, three hearty cheers were given for the ladies and adjournment was made to the large hall, which was packed, and the windows being opened the crowds gathered around outside. The Garfield Club opened with a rousing song, after which the meeting was addressed briefly by Rev. E. C. Crane, who in a happy manner welcomed the crowd, and introduced the first speaker, J. W. Milliken, Esq., of Bangor. Mr. Milliken spoke for three-quarters of an hour in a stirring and vigorous manner, calling forth rounds of applause.

The Club then sung another selection, which was warmly received. Rev. R. L. Howard of Bangor, was next introduced and spoke for an hour and a half, holding the undivided attention of his hearers until the close, when the audience showed their appreciation of his earnest remarks by hearty applause.

After the meeting a torchlight procession was formed and escorted the speakers and the Club upward of half a mile toward home. The meeting was a splendid success throughout.

MOOSEHEAD LAKE.

A Delightful Resort.

Some one has said to me write something about Moosehead. What shall I say? Where begin or where end? for you must know Moosehead is one glorious panorama, ever changing, ever shifting, lights and shadows, bold mountain-tops, rising straight and majestic or gradually falling in dim undulating lines, now bathed in sunshine, now lovingly draped with soft shadows and blue mists, while here, there, around, beneath, within, without, everywhere, rolls this magnificent lake, just now gliding peacefully, dreamily, an hour hence throwing white caps over its broad surface. Moosehead is not to be described, it must be seen. If the worms and the lizards possessed this world millions of years before we came into it, with what open-eyed wonder they must have surveyed this part of creation, and like Mark Twain shedding tears at Adam's grave, I could almost weep when I think of the poor Indian banished from this, a very Paradise of earthly hunting grounds. Nature, in her primative beauty keeps her own counsel and unfolds and develops with study and association. It would require many days, to really appreciate the beauties, the grandeur of this picturesque place. Pebble-beach, back-bay, cliff-beach, are only excelled by the shaded bowers through which we wonder to approach them, where the ground is carpeted in velvet mosses of green and gray, covered over with feathery, nodding ferns, and you peep into the deep recesses wondering if there is any one else in the world or if the old brown earth has been changed into fairy land.

I read in a paper, that a gentleman from Chicago had his trunk packed for Maine, but in attempting to tell his friends where he was going, took lock-jaw and died. I think that must have been true. I read in a guide-book that the guests at Mt. Kineo were courteous, pleasant people, and that the proprietor, Mr. A. O. Dennan, was a cherry, efficient host, who took great pleasure in attending to the comforts and wants of his visitors. I am very certain that is a fact. Our time has been spent most pleasantly. Through the courtesy of Mr. Jerome of Louisville, Kentucky, a large party made a charming excursion to the outlet of the Kennebec in the little steamer Day-dream. It was a day-dream, dreaming with eyes wide open, feasting on lovely pictures all about us till our joy was complete. The thanks of the company were tendered to Dr. Kempshall, of Elizabeth, N. J., followed by three rousing cheers for the Parson's 50th birthday. Tuesday we made the ascent of Mt. Kineo, to whose base we were carried in "The Fairy of the Lake" by invitation of Dr. Taylor of New York. The steamer is quite dainty and fairy like, but the passengers were solid, substantial mortals, who proceeded at once to embark the whole energy of their existence in climbing the rugged old Monarch of the Lake. Some one said, the ascent was quite easy. That deluded person would rather tell a lie on six months credit, than tell the truth for cash. However, the hill has not yet lifted itself so near to Heaven that perseverance will not at length gain the summit. There are seas that ships cannot sail with whole canvass, and there are passages in life from which we come forth not as we entered in. I think we felt, standing on the top, as Moses did gazing into the promised land, only we had the additional pleasure, that the valley below with all its beauties was ours to possess and enjoy. North and South streched the beautiful Lake, dotted with islands, broken into bays and inlets; in the southeast Spencer mountains, northwest, Katahdin high over all, while Kineo, Jr., lay near to us, almost an exact copy of the larger mountain. Moose River, Brassua Lake, all lent charms to the scene and we stood in breathless awe and thought, "How wonderful are thy works, in wisdom hast thou made them all." Saturday afternoon through the kindness of Mr. J. R. Mayo, a large party embarked in the steamer "Twilight" for a trip to Spencer Bay. It was a lively party as ever you saw. You know there are people solemn, stately and oppressive, to whom the bitter herbs of life are an agreeable and strengthening diet. Who take pleasure in everything that goes to show this world a vale of tears. We didn't have any of that kind on board. We had age, wit and wisdom, but our clothes were of youthful pattern and our feelings took the same shape, and we acted as much like saints as Bobolinks on clover tops. The day was perfect, after the morning rain, a special dispensation I think to our good host, and we scudded through the water on to Spencer bay.

Your guide book tells of routes and camp equipage, but what you need up here is a new vocabulary. We all broke out into a sort of mental measles of adjectives and adverbs and that one trip exhausted all known to Murray. Indeed the wilderness of learning grew so wild I could scarcely follow it. I was cudgelling my brain for a new word, when a lady said "most superior." That was new, superior was good, neuter-gender, nominative case, and agrees with the verb to boom, and 'superior' stock rose several points during the rest of that voyage. The only blemish was, the slight degree of vagueness and uncertainty it expressed. Next came Lily-bay—glorious sail home. We had a grand view of Katahdin, the solid granite base and top encircled with mists and shadows reaching far up into the clouds. Dr. T. H. Hawkes of Marietta, Ohio, in a graphic little speech—that man might lecture on ethics in Tremont Temple and be voted next door but one to a cherubin—moved the thanks of the company be expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Mayo for the pleasure we had enjoyed, and such a rousing wail as rose from that deck was most appalling. Next came three cheers for the captain, and that gentleman was convinced by the renewed roar that we were entirely confirmed in our opinion with no possibility of reconsidering. Our worthy host rising to the height of the situation—that man has enough administrative faculty to set up a candidate for the presidency—moved the thanks of the company for the Dr.'s speech. The uproarious responsive ayes ran over the water, smote the mountain side and the lofty peaks stood back in blank astonishment, while the echoes returned the compliment bestowed upon them. Moosehead is a good place to come. We can prove geographically, statistically and climatically, that even persons with limited means and unlimited infirmities, may here recover lost strength and vigor, unless the springs of existence are daily sapped by the responsibilities of ruffling and wardrobe, for this even the consolations of religion has no penacea. The old legend "Those only can sleep who do not care to sleep" fails to materialize here, and you sleep o' nights and sleep o' days, and our time seems short, though I suppose we have all there is. Genius writes and paints and does not know that virtue has gone out of them, but ordinary mortals tire, so I'm off for the Lake.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

August (Criminal) Term.

HON. JOHN A. PETERS, Justice Presiding.
B. H. MACE, ESQ., Co. Attorney.
RUEL SMITH, ESQ., Clerk.
WOODBURY PULSIFER, ESQ., Sten.

Monday, Aug. 23.

State vs. John Corson, indicted for breaking and entering the house of James H. Haynes in the night time.

The prisoner was brought in for sentence at eleven o'clock. Wm. H. McCrillis, Esq., appeared in his behalf. The following persons were examined in relation to the case:

James H. Haynes testified that the prisoner came to his house about half-past eight o'clock in the evening, through the back end of the house where there was no light; that he found his way through the shed and kitchen and up the back stairs to a room occupied by his daughter. Here he first found that there was a light in the house. Miss Haynes was lying on the bed reading and she screamed as soon as she saw Corson and Corson immediately sprang upon the bed and placed or tried to place his hand over her mouth. A second scream brought Mr. Haynes to the room, where he immediately grabbed Corson and struggled about the room for a short time, Haynes all the time having the prisoner by the throat, and finally he was got down upon the floor and gave up the struggle. By the aid of a revolver, which Mrs. Haynes brought to her husband, Corson was kept in subjection till an officer came and removed him to the station. Mr. Haynes states that Corson had been drinking intoxicating liquor, but that he was not drunk, and apparently knew what he was about. Several other witnesses were examined and after the hearing, His Honor Judge Peters said that he would further consider the case before passing sentence.

This forenoon Judge Peters sentenced Wm. McFadzen to pass six months in jail, for the theft of a pocket-book. Charles Hersey, six months in jail for entering a dwelling house in the night time; Samuel Christie, four months for a brutal assault.

A PUBLIC DUTY.

We are not in the habit of puffing any sort of patent medicines in our columns, for the business of a newspaper is to let people know what is going on in the world, and not to lend aid to what may be an imposition. But we happen to know Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., and can personally testify to the excellence of the medicine which the doctor calls "Favorite Remedy." And if a word of ours will persuade anybody to use it, and thus find relief from suffering, no professional etiquette shall hinder us from saying that word. For diseases of the blood, kidneys and bowels it has no equals. We would not be without it for five times the dollar that it costs.—Daily Times. d&w2w aug20

A GOOD INTRODUCTION.

Favorite Remedy was introduced into Connecticut in 1877, at the solicitation of Rev. J. G. Smith, of Hartford, who, after having suffered for years from Chronic Liver Disease and Indigestion, obtained the medicine and was cured. This faithful pastor, thinking of the bodies as well as the souls of his people, at once commenced the advocacy of "Favorite Remedy" among them, and has been the happy instrument of saving scores of lives. Favorite Remedy is now as well and favorably known in Connecticut as along the Hudson. One dollar a bottle. All druggists sell it. Dr. David Kennedy, Proprietor, Rondout, N. Y. d&w2w aug20
